

Alliance of Women in Energy (AWE) Membership Application

The Alliance of Women in Energy (AWE), a women's networking group, was created as a way to provide a positive forum for women in all energy professions including petroleum, wind, solar and other resources, working together in a constructive environment fostering cooperation and leadership opportunities.

Benefits for AWE members will be the encouragement and support for women in the energy sector. Events and activities for AWE members includes bi-monthly chapter luncheons with guest speakers specific to community and industry needs, industry specific professional seminars, leadership training workshops, community fundraising luncheons and/or dinners, and mentoring partnerships with local high schools, colleges and energy companies.
